Well that's exactly how I feel about Agent of Darkness, the third book in the Dark Fae FBI book. This book was pure awesomeness. The authors have ramped everything up tenfold and it was just so exciting to read that I found it incredibly difficult to book the down (FYI, don't start reading this book just before going to bed).

Agent of Darkness is the third book in C.N. Crawford's Dark Fae FBI series, and, true to its name, it's one hellavuh trip into darkness. This book has by far been my favourite book in the series (perhaps Cassandra and I share a love of dark,

~~Agent of Darkness (Dark Fae FBI, #3) by C.N. Crawford~~
Cassandra is an ex-FBI profiler who is also a pixie and a type of fae that feeds off of human fear. Roan is a fae whose entire family was slaughtered by an evil terror Fae, so he wants to hate Cassandra, but quickly realizes he can't. Cassandra is dragged into the fae world by family she didn't know she had.

Agent of Enchantment; Dark Fae FBI, Book 1 ... There isn't much that wasn't great about the last book in the dark Fae series. It stretched the span of human emotions. I would have loved a little more intimacy between the two main characters in this conclusion but otherwise well worth the time and money.

Book 4

There's a dark power growing within me. And I'm not sure I can control it. The fae king wants me dead. His assassins tracked me down and nearly killed me- now they're the ones lying lifeless in a pool of blood. But the price I've paid is too high. They hurt someone I love, and I burn for revenge. I'm done watching from the sidelines. Following the seductive fae Roan, I join the rebels but find myself surrounded by suspicion at every turn. But with the strange new magic in my blood, no one trusts me anymore. It's the magic of fear, of terror, of nightmares. The king's minions have given me another name: Mistress of Dread. My power is unstable and deadly, and to get my vengeance, I must learn to control it.

Yet with fury boiling in my blood and desire for Roan kindling my heart, it seems like an impossible task. FBI Agent, Pixie, Terror Leech, Mistress of Dread. Will I become a King Killer as well?

The fae live among us. And one of them is a serial killer. I thought this would be a simple profiling case. Just another Jack-the-Ripper wannabe, prowling London's streets, searching for easy kills. I was wrong. This killer is fae, and he's as elusive as smoke on the wind. But I'm an FBI profiler, and it's my job to track him down. It doesn't matter that one of the main suspects--a lethally alluring fae--is trying to seduce me... or kill me, I'm not sure which. I won't be stopped, not even when panic roils through the streets of London, or when the police start to suspect me. As I close in on the killer, I follow him to a magical shadow realm that's like nothing I ever expected, where I'm hunted like prey. Fine. Bring it on. I'm an FBI Agent. And it turns out I have magical powers of my own.

London is burning, and the fae are holding the matches. I am Cassandra Liddell: FBI Special Agent and bad-ass Pixie. After barely surviving my last assignment, I'm on the hunt for answers about my past, when bombs start exploding all over London. Fae terrorists have attacked and thrown the city into chaos. To make matters worse, my best friend Scarlett has been abducted, and her captor is playing a twisted game of "Simon Says," sending me riddles paired with impossible tasks. Roan, a seductive fae warrior, is willing to help me ...

but of course he has a price. One I'm not sure I'm willing to pay. Hounded by supernatural pursuers and hunted by the CIA, I'm racing against time to save Scarlett, and to stop London from burning to the ground. Rage is simmering under the surface, and when it boils, I'll unleash a fire of my own.

Daisy Johanssen, fathered by an incubus and raised by a single mother, it's home. And as Hell's enforcer and the designated liaison to the Pemkowet Police Department, it's up to her to ensure relations between the mundane and eldritch communities run smoothly. But when a young man from a nearby college drowns—and signs point to eldritch involvement—the town's booming paranormal tourism trade is at stake. Teamed up with her childhood crush, Officer Cody Fairfax, a sexy werewolf on the down-low, Daisy must solve the crime—and keep a tight rein on the darker side of her nature. For if she's ever tempted to invoke her demonic birthright, it could accidentally unleash nothing less than Armageddon.

He must never realize who I am. I'm a demon slayer, so I lead a simple life slaughtering monsters. As long as no one learns that I'm descended from a forbidden line of Dragon Bloods, I can keep my job and my life. But when a powerful Fae king realizes I'm his fated mate, I've got problems. Especially since A), he hates me and B), he learns my secret, and it puts my whole life at risk. I want to kill my mate. The stars align when my employers send me to the Fae kingdom to compete in the Trials of the Fae as an undercover agent. My real goal? Investigate the king for the murder of hundreds. But the king only has eyes only for me, even when I'm in disguise. He senses that I'm his mate, and our attraction is off the charts. No matter how much we mistrust each other, we can't stay apart. But when he realizes what I'm up to, there will be hell

The final book in the Dark Fae FBI series. The Fae war is coming, and I'm caught right in the middle. My father, the ruthless Unseelie king, is dead. It should have been our moment of triumph. Instead, we find ourselves hiding in London from our ancient enemies, the Seelie. From Roan's city mansion, we need to unite the six Unseelie courts to fight back. Unfortunately, centuries-old feuds make this almost impossible. To make things worse, there's no good reason for anyone to listen to us. After all, I'm just a pixie bastard. Did I mention that my dread powers are gone? If that weren't enough, I need to decide if I want to live forever in the world of the humans, or the world of the fae with Roan. Sure--he's gorgeous and loyal, but do I want to spend forever in this chaos? As the Seelie encroach on our territory, it's time to see if Roan and I--terror and love--can really change the world together.

fae prince, determined to earn his place on the throne. The prince's brooding guardian, burdened with a terrible secret. For centuries, the Eight Courts of Folk have lived among us, concealed by magic and bound by law to do no harm to humans. This arrangement has long kept peace in the Courts—until a series of gruesome and ritualistic murders rocks the city of Toronto and threatens to expose faeries to the human world. Four queer teens, each who hold a key piece of the truth behind these murders, must form a tenuous alliance in their effort to track down the mysterious killer behind these crimes. If they fail, they risk the destruction of the faerie and human worlds alike. If that's not bad enough, there's a war brewing between the Mortal and Immortal Realms, and one of these teens is destined to tip the scales.

The only question is: which way? Wish them luck. They're going to need it.

Rule #3: Don't stare at invisible faeries. Aislinn has always seen faeries. Powerful and dangerous, they walk hidden in mortal world. Aislinn fears their cruelty—especially if they learn of her Sight—and wishes she were as blind to their presence as other teens. Rule #2: Don't speak to invisible faeries. Now faeries are stalking her. One of them, Keenan, who is equal parts terrifying and alluring, is trying to talk to her, asking questions Aislinn is afraid to answer. Rule #1: Don't ever attract their attention. But it's too late. Keenan is the Summer King who has sought his queen for nine centuries. Without her, summer itself will perish. He is determined that Aislinn will become the Summer Queen at any cost—regardless of her plans or desires. Suddenly none of the rules that have kept Aislinn safe are working anymore, and everything is on the line: her freedom; her best friend, Seth; her life; everything. Faerie intrigue, mortal love, and the clash of ancient rules and modern expectations swirl together in Melissa Marr's stunning 21st century faery tale.

To live, I must tempt the angels of death. It's been eighteen months since the angels of the apocalypse ripped our world apart. Before, I was a burlesque dancer, decked in sequins and feathers at the hippest clubs. Now, I live in an abandoned hospital in East London, scavenging for scraps. At least, until I get the chance to fight back against the disturbingly seductive angels. In fact, I'm going undercover as a spy in their castle. I have two goals: learn their weaknesses, and find my missing sister. Problem is, I have to pretend to be someone I'm not: an alluring succubus. If one of the angels discovers who I really am, the fate of the world could lie in ruins. I can't let that happen. The angels tried to destroy my world, and it's my turn to ravage theirs.

After ten years at war, Jev Dharrow looks forward to hanging up his sword, relaxing with a cool mug of ale, and forgetting that the love of his life married another man while he was gone. But when his ship sails into port, a beautiful woman wearing the garb of an inquisitor from one of the religious orders waits to arrest him. His crime? He's accused of stealing an ancient artifact with the power to start another war. Jev would gladly hand over the artifact to stop more suffering, but he has no idea where it is or even what it looks like. The inquisitor woman definitely has the wrong person. Inquisitor Zenia Cham grew up with nothing, but she has distinguished herself as one of the most capable law enforcers in the city, and she's next in line to become archmage of the temple. All she has to do is find the Eye of Truth, and her superiors are certain that Jev has it. He tries to charm her with his twinkling eyes and easy smile, but she's not letting any man get between her and her dreams. Especially not a thief. If Jev can't convince Zenia they're on the same side, find the artifact, and clear his name, his homecoming will turn into a jail sentence. Or worse.
