The Academic Word List is a compilation of vocabulary specifically useful for academic writers and students. The Longman Dictionary is installed on the computers in SACLL; you can use this to look up new words, learn pronunciation, and to see words in context. There are Spelling & Pronunciation Folders available in SACLL. These are resources written by ISLI staff members that will help you practise spelling and word recognition while listening.

SACLL-Vocabulary Grammar - University of Reading

When you get to university, you'll find you need to get through a lot of readings either from your reading list, or for wider reading in preparation for an assignment. These may be journal articles, chapters in edited books or chapters in textbooks. Many of these academic texts will seem quite difficult, especially to begin with.
