The Olive Lamming Creative Writing Competition is an annual literary competition held in memory of the late Dr Olive Lamming, who was an active member of the Isle of Man Literary Society for many years. The competition dates back to 1972 when the then President of the Society, Mr R G Morton, donated a sum of money to establish a foundation to enable a literary competition to be held in perpetuity. This year, as part of the ongoing development of the Competition, the Society is publishing all the entries submitted. Inside these covers you will find a variety of writing from a number of authors – everything from a long narrative poem to a science fiction short story to an account of a volunteer's day at Noble's Hospital. The Isle of Man Literary Society would like
