Masters Degrees in Business & Management, Canada

We refer to a "masters degree" without apostrophe. As a broad rule of thumb, I would suggest that "Master of" refers to the person; the "Masters in" refers to the degree. E.g. "He has a Masters in History"; "He is a Master of History". But observe: "He holds a Masters degree in history"; "He holds a Master of History degree".

The correct way to spell master's degree is with the apostrophe. The s in master's indicates a possessive (the degree of a master), not a plural. If you're speaking of a specific degree, you should capitalize master and avoid creating a possessive: Master of Science. The same rules apply to a bachelor's degree.
